1.5V AA battery charges the capacitor

Capacitor charges to 330 volts

If LED is red the capacitor is still charging

If LED is green capacitor is fully charged

Turn the winding mechanism

The film is rotated into position

Press shutter button

Shutter opens briefly to allow light in the lens

Capacitor releases voltage to the bulb

Photo is captured by chemicals on film

Chemicals needed to retrieve photo from negative