SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarly Focus: The vast majority of my scholarship addresses issues related to lawyer regulation, globalization, and the legal profession. Despite the rapid pace of developments, this is an underdeveloped academic field and relatively few academics have a similar scholarly focus. My scholarly goals vary depending on the particular article.

My articles include: 1) "transparency" articles, designed to bring certain lawyer regulation developments into the public domain for discussion and debate; 2) "mapping" articles that examine (often at great length) an important new development that is not widely known; 3) commentary and "reflection" articles; 4) reform proposals; 5) teaching-related articles; and 6) "outreach" articles. (I have written some miscellaneous articles that do not fit into any of the categories listed above.) In addition to producing my own scholarship, I have arranged for publication of four global legal practice Symposium issues that included articles about developments that were not widely known.

Presentation Slides: My scholarly work product includes detailed presentation slides that provide extensive citations. Most of these slides are posted on my personal website: www.tinyurl.com/laurelterry

* Hot-linked items are also available on my personal webpage: <http://www.personal.psu.edu/faculty/l/s/lst3/>

Books: Russell G. Pearce, Renee Newman Knake, Bruce A. Green, Peter A. Joy, Sung Hui Kim, M. Ellen Murphy, & Laurel S. Terry, PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY, A CONTEMPORARY APPROACH (INTERACTIVE CASEBOOKS) (West 3rd ed. 2017), Laurel S. Terry, THE REVISED HANDBOOK ABOUT THE GATS GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TRADE IN SERVICES FOR INTERNATIONAL BAR ASSOCIATION MEMBER BARS (International Bar Assoc. 2013); Laurel S. Terry and Aims C. Coney, Jr., Thomas G. Wilkinson, Jr., eds. PENNSYLVANIA ETHICS HANDBOOK (1st ed. 1998, 2000).

Book Chapters: I have published a number of book chapters, including a chapter entitled “Legal Services in the United States” that I co-wrote with Erica Moeser that was published by Cambridge University Press. I was selected to published the entry on “Lawyers, Regulation of” in James Wright Ed., INTERNATIONAL ENCYCLOPEDIA OF THE SOCIAL AND BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES 619-627 (2nd ed., 2015)(Oxford: Elsevier). I also wrote the chapter entitled Globalization and Regulation in an ABA book entitled Paul Haskins, ed. THE RELEVANT LAWYER: REIMAGINING THE FUTURE OF THE LEGAL PROFESSION 157 (ABA 2015).

Articles: My scholarly publications include more than thirty-five law review articles, fifteen shorter pieces, e-publications, and lengthy documents supporting public policy testimony. These articles appear in the law reviews at Georgetown, Northwestern, Fordham, Vanderbilt, Hofstra, and Minnesota law schools, among others and in journals such as LEGAL ETHICS. They are also available through a broad range of electronic platforms, including SSRN, BePress, the IBA Anti-MoneyLaundering Forum, the American Bar Association (e.g. here and here), and on my personal webpage. My articles have been cited in ABA policy initiatives, including the 2016 ABA Model Regulatory Objectives.

SERVICE

International, National, and State Organizations Involved in Lawyer Regulation:

I am a long-time member of the International Bar Association’s International Trade in Legal Services Committee and have worked on, and have written about, the IBA Resolutions cited in the World Trade Organization’s Legal Services Sectoral Reports. I was a member of the ILA Working Group that drafted The Hague Principles on Ethical Standards for Counsel Appearing before International Courts and Tribunals. I have served on the Board and as webmaster for the International Association of Legal Ethics and have served on committees of the International Conference of Legal Regulators.

In the U.S., I have served on ABA Committees related to the GATS and to all three stages of lawyer regulation (legal education and bar admissions, ethics rules, and lawyer discipline). I have served as Chair of the AALS Section on Professional Responsibility and on the AALS Committee on Sections and the Annual Meeting. In Pennsylvania, I served on an ad hoc Supreme Court Committee considering revisions to the Pennsylvania Code of Judicial Conduct. I am a long-time member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association Committee on Legal Ethics and Professional Responsibility and served as its Vice-Chair.

Law School & University Service: I have served as the elected chair of the faculty, the elected chair of the law school’s Promotion & Tenure Committee, the elected representative to the University’s Graduate Council, and on committees that include the Appointments, Curriculum, Judicial Clerkship, and Faculty Rights & Responsibilities Committees. I have served on several university-wide international outreach committees and as Co-Chair of the Driving Digital Innovation Strategic Plan Steering Committee.

SCHOLARLY WORK RECOGNITION

Academic Presentations: I have spoken at conferences or given talks to the faculty or students at the following U.S. law schools: Harvard, Stanford, Georgetown, Fordham, Cornell, Vanderbilt, Minnesota, Hofstra, Temple, Akron, Nova, and Michigan State.

I delivered the 2014 Hofstra Howard Lichtenstein Distinguished Professorship in Legal Ethics Lecture and the 2013 Gertler Lecture at the University of Saskatchewan College of Law. I have served as a visiting professor at the University of Vienna (1998) and am a three-time Fulbright grant recipient (Germany: 1998-99 and 2005-06; Austria: 1992). I have given talks at a number of foreign universities, including Oxford, the London Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, the University of Groningen in the Netherlands, Freiburg, Cologne, and Bremen Universities in Germany, and the Riga Graduate School of Law.

Presentations to Legal Profession Regulators: I have spoken numerous times to U.S. lawyer regulators, including the Conference of Chief Justices; the National Conference of Bar Examiners; and the National Organization of Bar Counsel.

I have also spoken to foreign lawyer regulators, including at conferences sponsored by the International Conference of Legal Regulators, the Federation of Law Societies of Canada, the Law Society of Upper Canada, and the UK Solicitors Regulation Authority. I have spoken to quasi-regulator organizations such as the Council of Bars and Law Societies of Europe (CCBE), the International Institute of Law Association Chief Executives (IILACE), and the IBA's Bar Issues Commission.

Presentations to International Organizations: I have given presentations about legal services to the World Trade Organization in Geneva [representing the IBA at the 2004 Workshop on Domestic Regulation]; to a United Nations subcommittee in New York [representing the IBA before the Technical Subgroup of the Expert Group on International Economic and Social Classifications of the U.N. Statistics Division (2004)]; at the IBA GATS Forum, Brussels (2003); and at several IBA annual Bar Leaders' Conferences.

Government Consultations: As a result of my work on the GATS, I was designated as a Special Advisor to the Conference of Chief Justices and have worked with the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative. I have also worked with U.S. government officials in the Office of Terrorist Financing and Financial Crimes in the U.S. Treasury Department.

Other Presentations: I have spoken numerous times at AALS Annual Meetings, at the ABA's annual National Conference on Professional Responsibility, at the ABA's Annual and Midyear Meetings, for the Association of Professional Responsibility Lawyers (APRL), and for the Coordinating Council of the ABA Center for Professional Responsibility. I have also spoken at meetings of the American Society of International Law, to various ABA Sections, at the Canadian Legal Ethics Forum, and at other legal profession meetings.

Miscellaneous: My scholarly work has been cited by AALS Presidents Lauren Robel and Michael Olivas. I have been quoted, inter alia, in the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, the ABA Journal, the American Lawyer, and the ABA-BNA Lawyers' Manual on Professional Conduct.
