

Mario Tombasco

1232 Cedar Head Rd.
Sugarloaf, PA 18249
(570) – 956 – 3580

- Profile:
- Accomplished Electrical Engineering student with a specialization in electronics design and digital signal processing.
 - Guitar instructor with over five years of teaching experience
 - Several years of hands on experience repairing electrical devices
 - Fluent in different computer operating systems, C++, BASIC, MATLAB, design software, and office document software
-

Employment:

Johnny Moratto's Music, Hazleton Pennsylvania . . . July 2005 - present day

Inventory and computer management January 2007 – present day

- responsible for keeping accurate inventory records
- performed repairs, debugging, and setups on sales, inventory, and security computer systems
- worked both alone and with another employee

Instrument and amplifier repair technician January 2006 - present day

- performed basic repairs such as soldering components and replacing speakers
- worked both alone and with another employee

Guitar Teacher July 2005 - present day

- taught all levels of music instruction on fretted instruments

Education & Activities:

The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA 16802

Electrical Engineering Major 2006 - present day

- Cumulative GPA: 3.11
- Expected graduation: BS EE May 2010
- Member of Eta Kappa Nu (HKN) Electrical. October 2008 – present day and Computer Engineering Honor Society
- President of HKN Epsilon Chapter May 2009 – present day
- EE Undergraduate Student September 2009 – present day
Advisory Committee
- Penn State Hazleton Campus Honors Program August 2006 – May 2008
- Student Leader of Penn State Hazleton August 2007 – May 2008
Campus Honors Program