

Northeastern Association of Criminal Justice Sciences (NEACJS)

NEACJS, an affiliate of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences, serves academics in criminal justice and related fields in an effort to enhance the quality and the dissemination of scholarship.

Two annual awards are presented to honor members for exemplary service. The Founder's Award honors contribution to the NEACJS and the Regional Fellow Award recognizes scholarly contributions to Criminal Justice Education. An annual student paper contest is held to award students for outstanding scholarly work in criminal justice.

NEACJS Regions

United States: Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, and Washington, DC.

Canada: New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Prince Edwards Island, Ontario, and Quebec.

Types of Memberships

Academic Academics at Universities, Colleges, Junior, and Community Colleges throughout northeastern United States and Canada are invited to join NEACJS. Your membership in our organization will afford you an opportunity to network with colleagues from throughout the northeast US and Canada and to share the results of our educational and research in the field of Criminal Justice

Student All undergraduate and graduate students in Criminal Justice and cognate studies are invited to join with teachers, academicians, and professional practitioners in an organization that encourages and respects students' contributions. Undergraduate and graduate students participate in the NEACJS annual conferences. Additionally, your membership in our organization will afford you an opportunity to avail yourself of improved research resources as well as career and educational opportunities.

Professional Professional practitioners in Police, Prosecution, Courts, Probation, Corrections, Parole, Juvenile Justice, Social Work, and Human Service related to Criminal Justice are invited to join NEACJS. Our organization values encourage practitioner contributions. NEACJS' mission is to serve as an innovator in Criminal Justice Education and Public Policy.
