

It's Break Time. What Better Way to Spend it Than at the Movies?

Dec. 8

Blood Diamond

Starring: Leonardo DiCaprio, Djimon Hounsou, Jennifer Connelly
During the chaotic civil war in Sierra Leone in the 1990s, South African mercenary Danny Archer and Mende fisherman Solomon Vandy are joined in a common quest to recover a rare pink diamond, in order to save Vandy's family. Along with an American journalist (Jennifer Connelly), they journey into rebel territory as forces on all sides try to grab the stone before they do.

The Holiday

Starring: Cameron Diaz, Kate Winslet, Jude Law, Jack Black
Iris lives in London. Amanda is in Los Angeles. Both just broke up with their cheating boyfriends. Both feel like they need to get away. So they meet over the internet and decide to exchange houses for their vacations to see how the other half lives.

Dec. 8

Eragon

Starring: Jeremy Irons, John Malkovich
A boy named Eragon finds an unusual, polished blue rock in the forest. At first, he thinks it's a lucky stone; instead, he discovers that it is actually a dragon's egg. When the evil King Galbatorix threatens his land, Eragon trains to be a Dragon Rider and defend his people from harm.

The Pursuit of Happyness

Starring: Will Smith
Chris Gardner is a single dad trying to raise his five-year-old son and provide for him as a salesman. When they are evicted from their San Francisco apartment and have nowhere to go, Chris lands an unpaid internship at a prestigious brokerage firm. In this highly competitive environment, Chris is determined to make a better life for his small family.

Dec. 20

Charlotte's Web

Starring: Dakota Fanning, Julia Roberts, Oprah Winfrey, John Cleese, Steve Buscemi
Wilbur is a humble piglet. Born the runt of the litter, his life is spared by the farmer's daughter, Fern. But he still faces the prospect of becoming dinner. Luckily, Wilbur befriends a spider named Charlotte, who spells out words in her radiant webs to convince the humans that the little guy really is some pig.

Dec. 22

We Are Marshall

Starring: Matthew McConaughey, Matthew Fox, David Strathairn
In 1970, the small town of Huntington, W.V. was shattered by a tragic plane crash which killed nearly the entire football team and coaching staff of Marshall University. As those left behind struggled to cope with the devastating loss of loved ones, the community found hope in the leadership Jack Lengyel, a young coach determined to rebuild Marshall's football program.

Night at the Museum

Starring: Ben Stiller
Larry Daley is a down-on-his-luck guy who gets a job as the night watchman at New York's Museum of Natural History. It's a boring job, until he accidentally unleashes an ancient curse and the exhibits start to come to life. Now he's got to keep a tiny Attila the Hun from fighting the ancient Romans, the cavemen from setting the place on fire, and the dinosaur bones from trampling everything.

The Good Shepherd

Starring: Matt Damon, Robert De Niro, Angelina Jolie
Edward Wilson was a bright, ambitious Yale grad with a spotless reputation and a love for his country. It made him a prime candidate for a career in intelligence, and he was recruited to work for the Office of Strategic Services, the precursor to the CIA. As the world settled into the long paranoia of the Cold War, his steely dedication to his country and to the Agency meant great sacrifices at home.

Rocky Balboa

Starring: Sylvester Stallone, Milo Ventimiglia
Former heavyweight champ Rocky Balboa steps out of retirement and back into the ring, pitting himself against a new rival. While his passion and spirit are reignited, an older Balboa must consider the mental and physical risks of facing off against a younger, faster opponent. Does Rocky have enough fight left in him to go the distance?

Also be sure to check out some of the great titles coming to DVD in December.

Constantly compared to Harry Potter, the highly-anticipated fantasy adventure film, Eragon, opens Dec. 15.
