Career in Academic Research in Economics
For Whom: Anyone interested in pursuing graduate school in economics.

C.A.R.E.
is a Department of Economics organization that provides information on the resources available in the Department on how to prepare for successful admission to graduate school and a successful career in economics.

- Entry into honors-level principles and intermediate courses
- Mentoring resources from Faculty
- Connect with faculty undertaking research in your area of interest
- Details about our special mentoring program for women and minorities
- Exposure to academic research
- Opportunities for summer research internships

Check out the CARE website: http://econ.la.psu.edu/undergraduate/care

For further information, contact Professor Bee Roberts, byr@psu.edu