LIFE IS GETTING BETTER AND WE AS A SOCIETY ARE CREATIVELY SOLVING MORE PROBLEMS- Endangered Species Protection

• The bald eagle is America’s nation symbol.
• It went through 3 decades of recovery efforts.
• Laws went up to protect this rare bird.
• Fertilizers caused the bird to die off rapidly in the first place.
• It is no longer on the endangered or threatened species list.
• Secretary of the Interior Dirk Kempthrone once said, ”the eagle has returned.”

Medical Treatment

- Over the past 50 years, the survival rate has steadily increased.
- About 90% of medical visits lead to a diagnosis that can be cured by a primary doctor.
- In 1900, 30.4% of deaths of children (5 years or younger) occurred.
- In 2008, that percentage decreased to 1.4%.
- In 2008, heart disease was responsible for 24% of deaths, in 1950 it was 72%.
- Biotechnological advances allow malfunctions in the body to be cured. An example is growing skin tissue on its own and putting it over burns.
- Almost every infection can be cured by antibiotics.

Going Green Movement

- Going green does not mean you have to change your whole life and become a tree hugger.

- Just make a few small changes in your lifestyle

Some Small Changes:

- Using Canvas bags instead of plastic bags
- Conserve water
- Recycle
- Turn lights off when not need
- Car Pooling
