Sketch Up Project 1

PROPOSAL THE MAN'S HOUSE

In the image above, one can see the isometric view and of this beautiful rustic home. This view exposes the attractive front and back yard of the house. The front of the house has a spacious driveway and artistic landscaping; including shrubs and locally grown palm trees. There is also a fitting stone pathway leading from the driveway through the modern glass door.

Exiting through the striking double glass doors and along the stepping stone pathway, one can enter the backyard. In the backyard, there is an eye-catching in ground pool, complete with a stone pool area and six sunbathing chairs. In the middle of the pool in a small garden, with a miniature palm tree and several flowers growing in it. Right behind the pool area is a play fort perfect for children and completely within view from the many windows siding the house.

In the image above, one can see an aerial view of the home, exposing the decorated interior. As one can see, the home has a large living room area and plenty of space for entertaining guests. There is a spacious dining room with a large table to accompany many guests. The state of the art kitchen has all of the latest utilities and has a more appropriate dinner table for smaller parties and a flat screen television. Connected to the kitchen is a large bathroom that also is connected to the dining room for ease of access. The living room area has a massive couch, fully equipped television and entertainment system, and some modern art hanging on the walls. The master bedroom has a large king sized bed, flat screen television, Playstation 3, a window with a view of the beach nearby, and personal bathroom connected to the room as well.

Every single room in this home is fully furnished and designed with state of the art technology. This is a home that has been made to allow the owners to live a luxurious lifestyle.

Enjoy your new home!
