

Dina D. Munyana

517 Mifflin Hall ♦ University Park, PA 16802 ♦ 301-920-6360

ddm5289@psu.edu

Objective:

Obtain an internship position in a Biomedical Engineering company, as an opportunity to develop knowledge in Engineering Designs.

Education:

Bachelor of Science, Biomedical Engineering
The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA
Expected graduation: December 2019
Holly Spirit High School, Bujumbura, Burundi
Graduation: August 2014 (GPA: 3.44/4)

Relevant course: Engineering Design

Experience:

One Year training in a communication and journalism program
Program conducted by a media program in England (September 2013-September 2014)

- Was trained to analyze and make a critic on the quality of media reports
- Was introduced to report procedures and worked with a team of three on producing our own media report
- Was chosen to present the final analysis project, which focused on what percentage of their reports, the media devoted to news about youths (from 5 to 18 years old)

Manager and chief editor in AKANUMA Journal

High school newspaper intended to cover school events and create opportunities for student self-expression (2011-2014)

- Collected students articles and selected the best articles
- Coordinated the newspaper production: typing, printing, bookbinding process
- Searched for sponsorship for the journal

President of the School Theatrical troupe (2012-2013)

- Searched for sponsorship, organized the daily activities in the group, managed on-stage preparation (performances), and off-stage work (decoration, lightning, sounds effect, costume, and make-up)

Skills:

Fluently Speak 5 different languages: Kirundi, Kinyarwanda, Kiswahili, French, and English
Intermediate level in Chinese and German

