

Daniel Schain
39 Stanley Drive
Andover, CT 06232
(860) 742-6928
djs5870@psu.edu

Objective

To obtain an internship related to my field of study to further my understanding of civil engineering and the corporate world that surrounds it.

Education

Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pennsylvania
Civil Engineering, Anticipated May 2016
RHAM High School, Hebron, CT
Honors Graduate in Spring 2012

Work History

Munson's Chocolates, Bolton, CT

Retail Associate Summer 2011-Summer 2012

- Worked in customer relations and factory production.

Panera Bread, Glastonbury, CT

Associate Trainer, June 2010 to January 2011

Responsible for working the cash registers, communicating with customers, and taking customer's orders

- Trained new employees, handled total sales, built satisfied customer relationships;
- Provided prompt service while taking orders, serving food and closing the register

Computer Skills

Experienced in Auto CAD

Honors

National Honors Society
AP Scholar Award

Activities

Relay For Life

Member of a team that raises money for cancer victims by participating in fundraising events throughout the year and participating in the final 24 hour campout where one member of each team must be walking around the track at all times

Outward Bound

Traveled on multiple three week trips encompassing backpacking, kayaking, and rafting. Used teamwork to navigate through the mountains and Green River with peers of same age group. Took lead multiple times to correctly guide group to camp site.