SolidWorks Project

To learn the basics of SolidWorks we did tutorials. These tutorials were paired with a project that you created as you went along with the tutorials.

Our project was to build a lamp sitting on a table.
We were given set dimensions for the lamp and top of the table but we were able to design our own table legs.

This is the table leg I designed.