

Design Project 1

In project one, we learned about the design process, and how to create original solutions to a problem.

Design Project 2

In project two, we researched Lockheed Martin and came up with a better design for one of their products using additive manufacturing.

