Background

This house built by JINHOO CORPORATION has planned for the special client Geun-hye Park. The client want a luxurious house which contains more than 5 rooms and appropriate furniture. Also, yard with more than three different types of trees is requested. The whole design concept has planned and completed using the Google SketchUp by Jinhoo Kim.

Design Concept

The main theme for this house is 'leisure life.' A room for playing music and another open living room for hanging out with friends are designed for the client's leisure life. Another theme for the house is 'comfort.' The size of bedroom is relatively big so that the client can have comfortable night.

Components of the Project

There are 8 rooms – two bathrooms, two bedrooms, one kitchen, one living room, one music room, and one playroom – are in the house. There are yard with three different types of trees, side walk, driveway, and a sports car; and a small personal garden with a table and chairs and bamboo trees. There are two exterior doors – a front door and a glass door between the small personal garden and the house - ; and 15 windows – 7 in the first floor and 8 in the second floor. Appropriate and necessary furniture are in each rooms.
