Assumptions and Dependencies

- ★ This webpage may need an updated version of Adobe Flash Player to run.
<http://www.adobe.com/support/flashplayer/downloads.html>

General Constraints

This website was originally designed and hosted on a private terminal through PennState University using the PASS system. If any information is not accessible or exported correctly then contact the web designer. Contact information may be found below.

Goals and Guidelines

The K.I.S.S. design should always be followed if this design is carried through and edited for other designers. The web design does use simple rollover effects and will take a few seconds to load due to the high intensity of the graphics. These may be dulled down; however the same simplicity in the design should always be kept. The design of the web page is that of a welcoming room and should always be kept as such.
