Browsing through the 1902 newspaper ads

I enjoyed reading some of the advertisements in a 1902 newspaper and I hope you will find them as humorous as I did.

SIMON E. FELSBURG, BLACKSMITH, Lehigh Avenue. "Accommodations for each who passes big and little, horses, mules and asses."

DEITRICH'S MEAT MARKET, F. A. Deitrich, proprietor, Lehigh Avenue. "We kill none but prime cattle."

FRACKVILLE HOUSE, George Ernst, proprietor, North Lehigh Avenue. "Good accommodations for travellers. Rate one dollar per day. The table service can not be excelled."

"Try one of our big glasses of beer at THE CONTINENTAL HOTEL." Mr. Shadel, Prop.

"For fine large oysters go to JIM GRAY'S CAFE on South Lehigh Avenue. Families supplied at short notice."

MRS. MARY HAHN'S "Tobacco, cigars and confectionery store in the Richard's building on Lehigh Avenue. Also serves Hot Soup every evening."

THE HOTEL HILLANBRAND, Leading hotel in Frackville. "Electric light, heated by steam and electric, call bell—first class eating bar connected with the house. Charles Hillanbrand, proprietor."

North Balliet Street.

Fresh bread and cakes every day at the EAGLE BAKERY, W. A. Kalbach, Proprietor, Nice Street.

JOSEPH SEITZINGER, "Shaving and hair cutting parlor, Sharp Razors and clean towels."

STAR ENGRAVERS COMPANY, of Frackville. "Horse Sense will show that our line engravings are just what you need."

VALLEY HOUSE, Joseph Carr, proprietor, South Lehigh Avenue. "First Class accommodations for man and beast. Terms reasonable."

BROAD MOUNTAIN HOUSE, George W. Johnson, proprietor, Lehigh Avenue. "Here is where the thirsty are made to feel at home. The bar is supplied with the best wine, liquors and cigars. Fresh beer and porter always on tap."

FRANK S. HERB, "The best fruit, country produce, groceries and canned goods, and Ralston prime cattle." BROAD MOUNTAIN HOUSE, George W. Johnson, proprietor, Lehigh Avenue. "Here is where the thirsty are made to feel at home. The bar is supplied with the best wine, liquors and cigars. Fresh beer and porter always on tap."

PURNELL'S TONSORIAL PARLOR, Samuel Purnell, Lehigh Avenue. "The best place in town for oysters. Also serves Hot Soup every evening."

THOS. M. REED, Corner Frack and Balliet. "Seasonable underwear, cotton fleece lined, wool fleece lined, camel's hair or natural wool."

"Anybody recall when Frackville looked like this?"
