This was the G. A. Haupt Jr. building at 35 West Frackville Street. It was a brick building and has not changed much except for the white facade and canopy over the door. The windows on the left hold a model of a court house built by Clarence "Hutch" Brusel and Caspar Arder in the 1920's.

As we all know, this never materialized, and this miniature building remained at the Haupt Mill on South Middle Street for many years.

The window on the right held a display of building materials and cabinets and was the show room for the Material and Cabinets. These rooms are now used by the Order of the Eastern Star and the Craftsmen's Club.

Mr. Haupt's office was located in back of this room. Albert Drasdis was the office clerk for many years. Joseph J. Nead, D.D.S. had his offices in the rooms on the first floor of this building. His is now occupied by the Union Grange Insurance Agency.

For many years Joseph J. Nead, D.D.S. had his offices on the second floor of this building, where he has been engaged in business for the last six years. He was born at Pottsville, April 10, 1881, son of Sebastian and Elizabeth (Spotts) Scheaffer, and is of German parentage.

Sebastian Scheaffer was born Oct. 1, 1822, in Germany, whence he came to the United States just about the time he attained his majority. Left an orphan when before the age of twelve years of age. He was early taught to support himself, working for various farmers in the vicinity, and finally he settled in America. Another young German was accompanied him. They finally got on their feet and the time they reached New York that he returned to the Fatherland at once. Mr. Scheaffer proceeded to Pennsylvania, locating in Pottsville, where long before he was doing business as a huckster, and he continued thus for a period of twenty-five years.

In the year 1876 he removed with his family to Frackville, and conducted the "Frackville House" for ten years, and then carried on a wholesale liquor store for several years. His widow passed away in Frackville July 18, 1887, and he is buried in the Lutheran cemetery there. He was a member of Miners Lodge, I.O.O.F., of Pottsville. Nine children were born to him and his family: Harry, Tillie, wife of William Eisenbeis; William; James; Joseph Scheaffer received his education in Pottsville, attending public schools. When twelve years old he became employed as a tobacco stripper, and from that work naturally went into cigarmaking, which he followed regularly until 1888. Meanwhile he had moved to Frackville with his parents, and he had a small cigar factory of his own. After giving up that occupation he did railroad work for a couple of years for the Philadelphia & Reading Company, being employed at Mahanoy Plane, just adjoining Frackville. Then for 14 years he was in the dairy business, in 1906 changing to his present line. He opened up a new and attractive ice cream and confectionery establishment, with up-to-date fittings and convenient in arrangement, and it has been liberally patronized from the start. Mr. Scheaffer controlling the ice cream business. He has a long record of efficient service as
