Schuylkill County American Legion Day was held in Frackville, July 4, 1929. The town celebrated one of the biggest events in its history. The weather was ideal and with the thousands of people who attended, no accidents were reported. The Medadine Hill Coal Company ambulance was on hand but was only needed when a woman fainted during the fireworks display. Many former residents visited here and were surprised of the many improvements.

This was a one day event and three parades were held. The morning parade started with a bang and it was a gala day from then on. The Chief Marshal, Daniel Frack, received great praise for the manner in which he conducted these parades and started them promptly. I was told that Mr. Frack was a very prompt person and was a gala day from then on. The Mummers Parade was staged at 8 p.m. and was a gala affair. Bands came from far off Sunbury, Mt. Carmel and Shamokin. Prizes to O'Donnel's Store. Fire Companies from all over the county were also represented. Judges were: Judge R.P. Hicks, Capt. S.W. Gearhart of Reading, Major D. Gressand, Lt. Barnhart, Chief Petty Officer A.L. Foltz of Pottsville, Rev. S.J. Garstka, Harry Oskin and T.P. Darvey, Lansford.

The Mummers Parade was staged at 8 p.m. and was a gala affair. Bands came from far off Sunbury, Mt. Carmel and Shamokin. Prizes to O'Donnell's Store. Fire Companies from all over the county were also represented. Judges were: Judge R.P. Hicks, Capt. S.W. Gearhart of Reading, Major D. Gressand, Lt. Barnhart, Chief Petty Officer A.L. Foltz of Pottsville, Rev. S.J. Garstka, Harry Oskin and T.P. Darvey, Lansford.

The Military and Civic Parade was held at 2 p.m. and proved to be the largest of the three parades. The Grand Old Lady of Frackville was in line and received much applause all along the line of march. This was Mrs. Margaret Anna Edwards. Bands from Pottsville, Mahanoy City, Port Carbon, Mt. Carmel and Shenandoah were represented. The prize for most in line from town was given to Daughters of Rebekah, and best float prize to O'Donnel's Store. Fire Companies from all over the county were also represented. Judges were: Judge R.P. Hicks, Capt. S.W. Gearhart of Reading, Major D. Gressand, Lt. Barnhart, Chief Petty Officer A.L. Foltz of Pottsville, Rev. S.J. Garstka, Harry Oskin and T.P. Darvey, Lansford.

The Mummers Parade was staged at 8 p.m. and was a gala affair. Bands came from far off Sunbury, Mt. Carmel and Shamokin. Prizes to O'Donnell's Store. Fire Companies from all over the county were also represented. Judges were: Judge R.P. Hicks, Capt. S.W. Gearhart of Reading, Major D. Gressand, Lt. Barnhart, Chief Petty Officer A.L. Foltz of Pottsville, Rev. S.J. Garstka, Harry Oskin and T.P. Darvey, Lansford.

The Military and Civic Parade was held at 2 p.m. and proved to be the largest of the three parades. The Grand Old Lady of Frackville was in line and received much applause along the line of march. This was Mrs. Margaret Anna Edwards. Bands from Pottsville, Mahanoy City, Port Carbon, Mt. Carmel and Shenandoah were represented. The prize for most in line from town was given to Daughters of Rebekah, and best float prize to O'Donnel's Store. Fire Companies from all over the county were also represented. Judges were: Judge R.P. Hicks, Capt. S.W. Gearhart of Reading, Major D. Gressand, Lt. Barnhart, Chief Petty Officer A.L. Foltz of Pottsville, Rev. S.J. Garstka, Harry Oskin and T.P. Darvey, Lansford.

The Mummers Parade was staged at 8 p.m. and was a gala affair. Bands came from far off Sunbury, Mt. Carmel and Shamokin. Prizes to O'Donnell's Store. Fire Companies from all over the county were also represented. Judges were: Judge R.P. Hicks, Capt. S.W. Gearhart of Reading, Major D. Gressand, Lt. Barnhart, Chief Petty Officer A.L. Foltz of Pottsville, Rev. S.J. Garstka, Harry Oskin and T.P. Darvey, Lansford.

The Military and Civic Parade was held at 2 p.m. and proved to be the largest of the three parades. The Grand Old Lady of Frackville was in line and received much applause along the line of march. This was Mrs. Margaret Anna Edwards. Bands from Pottsville, Mahanoy City, Port Carbon, Mt. Carmel and Shenandoah were represented. The prize for most in line from town was given to Daughters of Rebekah, and best float prize to O'Donnel's Store. Fire Companies from all over the county were also represented. Judges were: Judge R.P. Hicks, Capt. S.W. Gearhart of Reading, Major D. Gressand, Lt. Barnhart, Chief Petty Officer A.L. Foltz of Pottsville, Rev. S.J. Garstka, Harry Oskin and T.P. Darvey, Lansford.

The Mummers Parade was staged at 8 p.m. and was a gala affair. Bands came from far off Sunbury, Mt. Carmel and Shamokin. Prizes to O'Donnell's Store. Fire Companies from all over the county were also represented. Judges were: Judge R.P. Hicks, Capt. S.W. Gearhart of Reading, Major D. Gressand, Lt. Barnhart, Chief Petty Officer A.L. Foltz of Pottsville, Rev. S.J. Garstka, Harry Oskin and T.P. Darvey, Lansford.

The Military and Civic Parade was held at 2 p.m. and proved to be the largest of the three parades. The Grand Old Lady of Frackville was in line and received much applause along the line of march. This was Mrs. Margaret Anna Edwards. Bands from Pottsville, Mahanoy City, Port Carbon, Mt. Carmel and Shenandoah were represented. The prize for most in line from town was given to Daughters of Rebekah, and best float prize to O'Donnel's Store. Fire Companies from all over the county were also represented. Judges were: Judge R.P. Hicks, Capt. S.W. Gearhart of Reading, Major D. Gressand, Lt. Barnhart, Chief Petty Officer A.L. Foltz of Pottsville, Rev. S.J. Garstka, Harry Oskin and T.P. Darvey, Lansford.