There was a beautiful brown leather book. "Par- sonal War Sketches Grand Army of the Republic" in the Frick Public Library collection. This book contains gold-leaf sketches of the Civil War and was presented to the library by John S. Meredith Post No. 485, Department of Pennsylvania. The book consists of photographs and drawings that depict various scenes and events from the war. The book is an important historical artifact that provides insight into the experiences of soldiers during the Civil War. It also serves as a tribute to the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, who fought bravely to preserve the Union and to defend the Constitution and the laws of the United States. The book is a valuable resource for researchers and historians who study the Civil War and its impact on American society.}

There are several members of the post who served in the Civil War. Benjamine Skelley, who was born in 1839 in Schuylkill County and entered the service October 18, 1861, belonged to Co. "G", 17th Regiment of Penna. Volunteers and fought at Fort Wadsworth, August 9, 1862. He was discharged August 13, 1863, and his term is expired. James Bogg was born in 1847 in Philadelphia, Scotland, and entered the service Feb. 15, 1862. He was a Corporal. His term is expired.}
