It was during this time she was thrilled to visit pins and photographs of the Frackville Orchestra under the direction of Irene Reynolds Smith. She realized the value of preserving music and eventually joined the Frackville Woman's Club. She also became a member of the Philadelphia Medley Group, the history of our town and its organizations was accompanied by the Philadelphia Choir under the direction of Dr. Wolley. This choir was accompanied by the Philadelphia Orchestra and performed at many concerts in the Philadelphia area. In later years she was a member of the Philadelphia Medley Group under the direction of Ironte Reynolds Smith. It was during this time she was thrilled to visit with the mother of Nelson Eddy at her apartment in New York City.

Mrs. Spence has always held a great passion for music and has a lovely soprano voice. She has been a member of the Frackville Woman's Club for many years and directed the Choir of this club with Mrs. Gertrude Tenenholz as the pianist. The first time this group sang in public was on February 14, 1951 at a fashion show conducted by the Frackville Woman's Club. They sang at Mother's Day Service at the Frackville Elks several times and for the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs. She was the musical director for a play "Happiness Ahead!" which was presented on May 23, 1953 and presented many concerts of both sacred and secular music in several churches in Frackville and surrounding towns.

She was also a member of the Community Choir of Shenandoah and the Eastern All-State Band. She attended Lennox College Academy in Hopkinson, Iowa, in 1917 and entitled in the United States Navy in June of that year. At the end of World War I she returned to Lennox and after two additional years of college accepted a position with the Delaware County Telephone Company where he worked for seven years. In June 1928, he returned to Clevel and worked for the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania until October when he was transferred to Reading for a short time and eventually to Frackville where he was an installer-repairman.

In April 1950, he received the title Private Branch Exchange Installer and had given the Bell Company thirty years of service before retiring in 1963. He was very active in town and was instrumental in organizing the Little League Association of which he was treasurer for eleven years. He was a fifty year Mason and was a member of the Eastern Star of Iowa, in 1917 and enlisted in the United States Navy in June of that year. At the end of World War I he returned to Lennox and after two additional years of college accepted a position with the Delaware County Telephone Company where he worked for seven years. In June 1928, he returned to Clevel and worked for the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania until October when he was transferred to Reading for a short time and eventually to Frackville where he was an installer-repairman.

In April 1950, he received the title Private Branch Exchange Installer and had given the Bell Company thirty years of service before retiring in 1963. He was very active in town and was instrumental in organizing the Little League Association of which he was treasurer for eleven years. He was a fifty year Mason and was a member of the Eastern Star of Iowa, in 1917 and enlisted in the United States Navy in June of that year. At the end of World War I he returned to Lennox and after two additional years of college accepted a position with the Delaware County Telephone Company where he worked for seven years. In June 1928, he returned to Clevel and worked for the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania until October when he was transferred to Reading for a short time and eventually to Frackville where he was an insta.