Do you know Warrior Mersch of 239 South Butler Street? If you do, then you know what a humanitarian he is. When I called him and asked for a "date" he said, "Why sure, if the good Lord is willing and nobody else objest!" And so we had our date.

Mr. Mersch was born in Roaring Creek Valley near Numidia and came to Frackville in 1891. His home was at 217 South Nitta Street, and then they moved to the house where he is now residing. He was employed as a handyman for the Frackville Lumber and Coal Company. This building, which was later razed, was located between the Amosky home at 103 East Butler Street, and the railroad on the right. Mr. W. N. Nott of Iron and Jim, James Brealey of Pottsville were some of the proprietors of these premises. Mr. Mersch drove a team of horses making deliveries of lumber, coal, and building materials to customers in town.

Three horses were owned by this company, and each team of horses drove the same team of horses every day. Some of the employees he recalled were Agnes Hoh, Valerie Rice, and Albert McCaw who were on the office staff. John, cab driver and Oscar Beaver, team driver.

Mr. Mersch recalled working for Peter Walter and Frank Willison, builders and contractors of town. Many of employees he recalled were Slowitsky and some residents of town may remember him. Mr. Slowitsky was the business manager of the High School for several years and today at the age of 83 is enjoying a leisurely way of life.

Mr. Mensch was born in Roaring Creek Valley near public buildings, 664,000 miles of roads, 7,700 bridges, 10,000 mules, Old Kate really knew her job. She did not have a fancy name. Mr. Mensch was fascinated with Fuller Brush when he was 20 years old and told me he meant Fuller Brush to me.

Mr. Mensch was the custodian of the High School for several years and today at the age of 83 is enjoying a leisurely way of life.

By virtue of the win the 8-1-17; Totals, 15-7-37. The Frackville CYO Mahanoy staged a gallant defense.
