

NICHOLAS NATOLI

OBJECTIVE

To obtain an internship for the Summer of 2013 in the Bioengineering field.

EDUCATION

The Pennsylvania State University, Expected B.S. Bioengineering

- Expected Graduation – May 2015
- Cumulative GPA – 3.33/ 4.0

WORK EXPERIENCE

Quake Lacrosse Inc.

Lacrosse Coach

- Instructed and guided high school lacrosse players on the fundamentals of the lacrosse game during practice and games. Worked full time through the summers of 2011 and 2012.

Sunnybrook Swim Club Inc.

Lifeguard

- Observed Pools to insure well-being of patrons while maintaining swim club's pools and grounds. Worked full time in the summer, 2008-2012.

PROFESIONAL EXPERIENCE

Medical Experience

- Learned and experienced the medical field, gastroenterology, by following and observing a gastroenterologists through the University of Jefferson Hospital, August 2012
- Learned and experienced the medical field, orthopedics, by following and observing different procedures. Offered through University of Jefferson Hospital-Methodist Division, August 2012

Engineering Experience

- Experienced and observed engineering design product. Went through different steps of design product stages and module design plans. Final Paper on module steps and observations was written. Experienced at Formation-EMS. (Honeywell) July 2010.

ACTIVITIES & AWARDS

Sigma Nu Fraternity Inc.-Philanthropy Chair

- Organized community service events and philanthropy events.
 - Philanthropy events include; Thon, Grilled Cheese for Cheese which raised over 500 dollars in 2012 for St. Jude Hospital.

Penn State Club Lacrosse Member, Fall 2011-2012

Selected All-State Lacrosse Member, Spring 2011

Recipient of Moorestown- Cox Scholarship, 2011

New Jersey Lacrosse State champion, Spring 2011

All Academic Football Player, Fall 2010

HOBBIES & INTERESTS

Running
Lacrosse