There will be placed both a cushion and cloth connected to the top of the piston. The cloth will cover the cushion and connect to each of the four rubber stoppers on the four corners. The lever is pushed down by the user’s opposite foot.