Engineering Drawing:

This semester in the graphics portion of my Edesign 100 Class, I learned how to sketch objects in an engineering manner. I learned to draw multi-view sketches and label the dimensions of the object on graph paper. In addition I learned to sketch isometric views of objects on isometric graph paper. I am also able to sketch section-views of objects and circles on inclined surfaces. Below are some examples of object I’ve drawn.