Your total score will translate to letter grades roughly as follows:

90%=A-, 80%=B-, 70%=C, 60%=D, <60%=F

These percentages are approximate and subject to change. The assignment of + and - will be decided at the end of the semester according to the overall class performance.

Late drop deadline: Friday, April 7

No Calculators or other electronic devices will be allowed during exams or quizzes.

Make-up exams: Make-up exams will be given only to students with a legitimate excuse for their absence and prior arrangement with the instructor. Note that individual travel plans do not count as legitimate excuses. Any missing exam will result in a grade of 0 for that exam.

Attendance: Note that poor attendance in class usually results in poor performance on exams.

You are responsible to get any information and/or notes for a missed class from a classmate.

Tutoring: Tutoring is available for this course. For details inquire at the Learning Resources Center.

Academic Integrity: All Penn State policies regarding ethics and honorable behavior apply to this course. Any form of cheating on an exam will result in a 0 for the grade on that test. Serious forms of cheating will be referred to the appropriate University offices and can lead to suspension or expulsion from the University.

Students with Disabilities: Students with a documented disability are advised to notify both their instructor and the Disability Services Office to request specific accommodations based on their disability.
