

Personal SolidWorks Project

I chose to create this DJ setup on SolidWorks because I enjoy to DJ and creating it seemed interesting. The most difficult part was building the computer because of all the intricate little features. For example, the USB or headphone plugin This project was very fun and I learned how to use a lot of new features on SolidWorks that I did not know before.