AN INVITATION TO CHAT WITH AN EDITOR AT MLA CONVENTION 2014

MLA members—especially graduate students and junior faculty—are again invited to chat with a journal editor at the MLA Convention. This opportunity is provided at each MLA Convention by the Council of Editors of Learned Journals.

The “Chat with an Editor” may address submission to academic journals in general or submission to one academic journal in particular. Topics may range from understanding the review process to responding to the editor’s letter about a submission. The “Chat” is intended to be a form of professional mentoring, one that will strengthen academic careers.

The schedule of the “Chat with an Editor” is listed below. Those interested may sign up for a twenty-minute slot, with an editor identified, by emailing Chat Coordinator Richard Kopley at rxk3@psu.edu.

CEIJ “Chat with an Editor” Schedule

MLA Convention, Chicago, January 9-12, 2014
Sheraton Chicago, Tennessee (Meeting Room Level 2—one floor above the Exhibit Hall)

Friday, January 10, 2014

9-10 a.m. Benjamin Fraser, Arizona Journal of Hispanic Cultural Studies
10-11 a.m. Laura L. Runge, ABO: Interactive Journal for Women in the Arts

11 a.m.-12 noon Elizabeth Martinez, Diálogo
Michael Cornett, Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies

12 noon-1 p.m. Thomas Beebee, Comparative Literature Studies
Catherine Montfort, WIF Studies

Saturday, January 11, 2014

9-10 a.m. Sheri Spaine Long, Hispania
Graham MacPhee, College Literature

10-11 a.m. Peter Walmsley and Eugenia Zuroski Jenkins, Eighteenth-Century Fiction
Bill Rivers, Russian Language Journal
11 a.m.-12 noon  Arthur Kinney and Bil Hrusovsky, English Literary Renaissance
                   Bonnie Wheeler, Arthuriana

12 noon-1 p.m.  Logan Browning, SEL Studies in English Literature, 1500-1900
                   Bonnie Wheeler, Arthuriana