

Engineering Drawings

Multi- View Drawings:

Isometric Drawings:

In the graphics lab we were tasked with learning how to draw 3d objects in a number of ways while following the engineering standards. Some of the most important things we learned were how to dimension, how to draw objects to look 3d (isometric) and how to make a drawing sheet that has all the info a potential manufacturer would need to make the part.