

Stephen Robinson
Chemical Engineer

University Park, PA 16802
svr5281@psu.edu

Objective

To develop processes that help convert raw materials and chemicals into more useful and effective forms

Education

The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA
Bachelor of Science, Chemical Engineering

August 2013-May 2017

Malvern Preparatory School

May 2013
3.97 GPA

Experience

Dec. 2011-
July 2013

Assistant Manager

Grand Slam USA, Reading, PA

Worked several camps with kids aging from 4-17. Kept books on finances, taxes, and coordinated fundraisers/promotions. Began giving private lessons by request. Collaborated with numerous brand name companies to discuss transactions between Grand Slam and their company.

Skills/Achievements/Activities

- Member of Penn State varsity baseball team
- Captain of Mathlete team at Malvern Prep for two years
- President of the National Honor Society at Malvern
- Taking 200 level math & science classes as a first semester freshman at Penn State
- Proficient in Spanish and written Latin
- Experienced in Windows operating systems, as well as several web design programs
- Have spent 10 days in Chulucanas, Peru to help build a village and bring aid to the members of the community
- Have spent a weekend at the following locations giving help and spending time with the homeless:
 - Camden, NJ
 - Philadelphia, PA
 - New York, NY

References

References available upon request