People follow more or less people than those that follow them.

Social networks give people the ability to check on each other.

Known (sum).

Social networks help people find the information they want to understand its meaning (sum).

Lifestyle of the rich in networked information.

Adolescents and youth deliberately control what personal information is released on the Internet.

Zero Privacy (sum).

Harvests gather personal information through location tagging and status updates.

Surveillance (sum).

Increasing popularity of social networking sites has resulted in the public sharing of sensitive personal information.

Observation from below of more powerful organizations and people.

Sovereignty (sum).

Covariance (ap).

Collaboration (sum).

Visual maps represent an individual's perception of an issue or concept.

Digital maps show relationships and connections.

Collaboration (sum).

Social media is a source for news.

Observation from below of more powerful organizations and people.

Sovereignty (sum).

Covariance (ap).

Collaboration (sum).