Assemble frame of kite.

Wrap kite in select plastic to ensure tight fit.

Attach strings to appropriate position on frame.

Take kite out into open area to reduce chance of damage.

Launch kite into selected area.

Turn camera onto preferred setting.

Attach light camera to kite frame supports with secure tape or string.

Take kite out into open area to reduce chance of damage.

Allow kite to become stable in flight to ensure picture quality.

Allow kite to elevate to intended altitude for desired photo.

Reel kite in to retrieve Camera.

Dispose of or save kite for future usage.

Detach Camera from kite.

Share and or Develop footage or photographs.

Upload camera to photos to desired device.