

Engineering Drawings

This semester I have learned how to implement engineering drawing. Not only did we draw objects in 3D but we also took 3D objects and made them 2D following engineering standards. This process allowed us to explore drawings in both multidimensions and isometric diagrams and ultimately visualizing objects in 3D. These drawings allow other people to recreate the part using the specifications provided.

Object line

Hidden line

Center line

Dimension line