Use the integration tables to FIND the exact arc length of the curve \( f(x) = \ln x \) for \( 1 \leq x \leq e \).

Reference the table number formula used.

Then approximate your answer and compare that to the approximate “straight line distance” between the points.