Peer Review: Paper #3 (Rhetorical Analysis)

Use the assignment’s invention questions as a guide to critique your partner’s paper. As always, margin comments are expected, as are end comments. In addition, please answer the following:

1. Has the writer described the rhetorical situation?

2. Has the writer clearly identified the text’s claim?

3. Does the writer support his or her claims with textual references and quotations?

4. Are the quotations used effectively?

5. Has the writer examined the rhetor’s ethos? Established an ethos for him- or herself?

6. Has the writer identified the appeals used and the effect to which these appeals are employed?

7. Has the writer adequately explained why the text is effective (or not)?

8. Has the writer examined the text’s style and tone, and explained how they affect the argument?

9. Has the writer made productive connections? Where is more explanation and development needed? Does the paper have focus?

10. Are you wondering why I asked about dead bees in the previous peer review?
