Dear UWC Friends,

We have had a busy and trying summer. We stand with the victims of the horrific crime committed by one man. The actions of NCAA against our football program have also brought angst within ourselves. I write this welcome note with a lot of introspection and reflection. I can only hope that all the facts come out as soon as possible.

We are very happy to welcome Shari Erickson as our new University Women’s Club Honorary President. She has been a long time member and has always enjoyed planning trips for our group.

The Fall Reception will be on September 4th at the Nittany Lion Inn Ballroom, from 6:30p.m. to 8:30p.m. Mrs. Erickson will present certificates to our 2012-13 scholarship recipients.

Lida Ouwehand and Teddy Nicholas have all the 27 Interest Group coordinators ready and willing to add us to all the exciting groups. We will have a table to take down ideas for future groups. Join to investigate our many groups. A couple of the popular groups will be on a hiatus this year. If you are willing to take charge, please do get in touch with Lida or Teddy. You’ll find their contact information along with a listing of all officers on page 4.

Several trips are planned this fall. Look for more information throughout the newsletter. For our Annual Fall Trip, we are off to the city on the banks of the Patapsco River. Visionary art, lunch with friends, Evergreen House, and a delicious dinner will be part of this fun day-trip journey. The Antiques Study group invites you to join them for a trip to Western Pennsylvania. Joanne and Janice are also working on a shopping trip to King of Prussia. Carla and Sarah have an interesting and informative afternoon planned for us: Barbara Rolls will be giving us a talk based on Volumetrics. Please “save the date” of April 29, 2013, for our annual Spring Luncheon. Joanne and Janice are already busy working on the program for us.

This newsletter reaches you thanks to the due diligence of Pat and Mariana. Thank you Janice for putting it on the web. Laurel, kudos to you as you put out yet another amazing newsletter. How well you manage to put in all the information and the pictures!

Bobbie is busy coordinating our evening on September 4th in the Nittany Lion Inn Ballroom. Charlene is delighted to inform all of us that we have over 70% of our pledges pay into the Endowed Scholarship Fund. Diane and Carrie keep all our financial records and track all member services. I am very grateful to my Board and thank you all for electing me this year.

Regards,

Mytri Acharya
UWC President, 2012-2013

Make your plans to join the Antiques Study Group at 7:00 AM on Wednesday, October 24, as we travel to St. Vincent College and Fort Ligonier in Western Pennsylvania. While at St. Vincent we will tour the Gristmill, which was completed in 1854. The monks still grind flour which is available for purchase. We will also tour the McCarl Coverlet Gallery, part of their 400 piece collection. Our final stop at the college will be the Basilica, built in the late 1800’s and restored in 1996. Lunch will be at the historical Colonial Inn Restaurant in Ligonier.

We will return to State College around 7:30 PM. The cost is $85.00. Please pay with a separate check, payable to Antiques Study Group, at the Fall Reception. For any questions, please contact Susan Klein (scdklein@comcast.net; 237-7774).

The Antiques Study Group held its first meeting in the fall of 1962. Mrs. Grant Smith, who organized the club, became the first chairman. She had a beautiful collection of antique dolls and spoke of their origin. The group met at Eisenhower Memorial Lounge with about 25 members in attendance. At that time there were no dues, so donations were collected to cover the cost of the room rental. By 1974, increasing membership initiated the collection of dues of $1.50, and meetings were held at the State College Women’s Club. In 1978, there were 125 members. Membership numbers have ranged from 134 to as “few” as 60. This past year (2011-2012) saw a membership of 72 and dues were $6.00.

The group has regularly taken bus trips in the fall, and often in the spring as well, to places as far reaching as Virginia, West Virginia, Delaware, Maryland, Washington D.C. and, of course, all around Pennsylvania to see museums, historic homes and locations and to shop for antiques. Among local tours the group has taken are the following: The Tavern Restaurant for a talk on their collection of prints and early photos of State College; the home of Mr. & Mrs. Roger Snyder to see their collection of antiques; and the home of Mr. & Mrs. George Henning to see their collection of Penn State Memorabilia. Around Pennsylvania, the group has visited Fallingwater, New Hope and Peddler’s Village, and Lewisburg to see the Packwood House and Slifer House, to mention just a few locations. Pennsylvania is very rich in historic locations. Throughout the academic year, the group meets to hear and see presentations related in some way to antiques or a past way of life. The group has also had presentations on genealogy and preservation of heirlooms of various kinds.

A large memory book will be on display at the Fall Reception for anyone wishing to view information on any of these past meetings and trips. Many wonderful memories are included in the beautiful memory book organized by Marilyn Gouran, the secretary/treasurer of the group for the last 15 years. She is resigning and will be sincerely missed. Many thanks go to her for her contribution to the Antiques Study Group as well as for all she has done for the UWC.

IN OUR THOUGHTS....

Get well wishes were sent to Diane Kesidis who fell and is recovering from surgery on her fractured wrist, Joan Luckie who fell and broke her jaw, and Maureen Moses who developed a blood clot as a result of a fall. Dot Colton and Falene Hamilton are recovering from joint replacement surgeries while Suzanne Dudley Hoffa is recovering from emergency surgery. Joanne Bennett’s husband, Les, anticipates surgery as a result of a bike accident. And Barbara Burton has suffered from an inner ear problem. We are saddened by the passing of Patricia Newnham and sent condolences to her family.

If you know of a club member who has reached a milestone, received an award, suffered a loss, is ill or recovering from surgery, or otherwise should be remembered, please contact Charlene Harrison, UWC Past President, at 237-6723 or by e-mail at chh1@psu.edu. Charlene will send a note or card on behalf of the club.
PSU Women’s Club Scholarships Update

The University Women’s Club is poised to award two scholarships to Penn State University adult learners who are strong students, have financial need, and are adult learners working full time at the University and studying part time. Candidates who meet our annual scholarship criteria were identified and the selection committee is reviewing their credentials. By the time you read this article, recipients of new scholarships will be named. Join us for the UWC Fall Reception on Tuesday, September 4, at the Nittany Lion Inn to meet and hear from them.

Due to the support of many club members, the University Women’s Club Endowed Scholarship account now contains $36,603.28. When the account balance reaches $50,000 in cash, we will be able to use the interest earned to make scholarship awards. In the meantime, we continue to make awards from the annually funded scholarship account. The women who have received our scholarships in the past have told us how critical that recognition was to their ultimate success. The support shown by our UWC members made them feel that they no longer were making the academic journey on their own. The financial support meant that they did not need to take a second job or they were able to take another course and move more quickly toward their educational goal. If you’ve supported the UWC Scholarships in the past, we are grateful. If you’d like to begin a tradition of giving, we welcome you! Donation forms are available on our website and at the Fall Reception.

Congratulations to Shannon Lachman, recipient of the University Women’s Club $500 Barnes and Noble gift card for 2012. She graduated from the State College Area High School with high honors in June and will enroll at Penn State University this fall as a Schreyer Honors Scholar. Shannon’s keen interest in politics and government has lead her to choose a political science major. Upon graduation her goal is to work in Washington, DC with an NGO or in a policy formulation capacity.

In addition to taking several AP courses in high school, Shannon was a member of the State High Mock Trial Team for four years, participating in state-level competition her junior and senior years and serving as captain her senior year. She also captained the State High Tennis Team as a senior having played on the team throughout high school, and she was a member of the #1 doubles team. Another organization in which Shannon was active was CAUSE, Creating Awareness Using Student Education, a group striving to get out the vote in support of Obama’s re-election.

We wish Shannon a smooth transition to university life and success as a Penn State student!

SPARKING OF ART
Calling all artists! This is an interest group for, by, and about artists: those who work with their hands, minds, and hearts. The recommendation is for each member to subscribe to at least one art magazine of her choice and to follow her own interest in reporting about books, trips, museums, shows, materials, observations, and ideas in an open forum where each member brings something of her own interest to the group. Sketch books and works-in-progress are welcome. WINE DIVAS
The Wine Divas is one of two wine groups supported by UWC. Our membership has grown exponentially in the last couple of years so that we now limit our membership. If more people sign up than we can accommodate, we will be happy to help new coordinators start a new group. We meet 3 times a year to taste and learn about wines. At each tasting we sample 3 wines paired with light hors d’oeuvres that are presented by different members at each meeting. Everyone is encouraged to participate as a presenter or host one time during the year.

Coordinators: Cindy Petrick (667-2278; cpetrick@verizon.net) and Sarah Jensen (466-6750; sjensen648@gmail.com)

Our Interesting Interest Groups!
The University Women’s Club is always willing to facilitate the creation of new interest groups. It only takes 10 interested members and one willing leader to establish a new group. Last year the Fun with Cooking group was born. What will be new in 2012?
The following have been proposed as potential new groups: Beginning Bridge, Bunko, Cake Decorating, Jewelry Making, Snowshoeing, and Networking for Professional Women. We will also take signups for a few groups that used to be active, but haven’t had enough support recently: French, Moms of Young Children, Photography, and Service.

If any of the topics listed above appeal to you, be sure to stop by the “New Groups” table at the Fall Reception to sign up. If you cannot attend, call Bobbie Muscarella at 814-571-6693 or email her at GertieMcFuddle@yahoo.com to record your interest. We’ll organize the groups that receive the required 10 or more signups this fall.
New York City
April 16-17, 2013 -- Two days of pampering await you on this annual excursion to New York. We will dine well at Petrosian Restaurant, see a Broadway show and an optional matinee, and tour Gracie Mansion and The Museum of the American Indian in the historic US Customs House. A $150 deposit check made payable to Fullington Trailways assures your place on the bus. Come join the fun (and educational opportunity). Look for sign-up sheet at the Fall Reception.

Dues must be received by October 1 in order to have your name included in the directory. If aren’t sure if you’ve paid your 2012-2013 dues, please email Diane Kesidis at dkesidis@yahoo.com. The Membership Application and Dues/Donation form is below.
