[redacted] which contains warrants, badges, extradition and commitment papers and other police paraphernalia from Cincinnati, Cleveland, Chicago, Miami, and New York City. This brief case was given to him by [redacted] and is presently 6' underground. He was specifically told by JOHN PYNE never to go near the brief case and told to either burn it or destroy it in some way. PYNE told him that the articles contained therein are traceable as some are authentic legitimate police badges and/or identification. [redacted] he met an individual serving time for counterfeiting who engraved much of the paraphernalia utilized by the homosexual extortion ring. This individual, when he was released from prison, carried the engravings out with him in his shoes. Among some of the engravings were the plates for AP identification cards, and that prior to the brief case being buried the person responsible for disseminating its contents to gang members was JOHN PYNE. [redacted]

[redacted] For information of all offices, bag recovered from [redacted] by Bureau Agents 5/13/66, contents inventoried and samples photographed, after which bag sent to FBI Laboratory for latent fingerprint examination. Bag allegedly given [redacted]

ITAR - EXTORTION
(OO: Chicago)

HOMEX
(OO: New York)

[redacted] the nation wide
extortion ring preying on homosexual victims, was interviewed on 3/4/65, by agents of WFO. During the course of this interview [redacted] advised that on [redacted] he met [redacted] [redacted] in St. Louis, Missouri, [redacted] at the Hilton Hotel in Chicago, and thereafter had been the passive participant in an act of fellatio committed in [redacted] room at the hotel.

[redacted] further advised that he furnished [redacted]
name to an acquaintance named WILLIAM BURKE with the understanding that BURKE would eventually extort money from [redacted] under threat of exposing him publically. At that time
BURKE was living at the Dearborn Plaza Hotel under the name
WILLIAM PAYSON.
